RE: Personnel Announcement – Bart Zona

I am pleased to announce the selection of Bart Zona to serve as the Community Impact Director for the Calumet Community effective February 1, 2017.

Bart will be stationed at the Robert Welsh Center for Scouting and give leadership to the Crossroads, Nishnabec, Prairie Dunes, and Thunderbird districts; collaborating with the Calumet Impact Chair and Community Commissioner as the Calumet Community Key 3, as well as being responsible for field service operations in the Calumet Community. He will continue to serve on the Field Leadership Team of the Council.

Bart began his professional career in 2008 as a District Executive in the Des Plaines Valley Council. In 2012 he was promoted to Field Director giving leadership to the Tall Grass, Twin Lakes, and Voyageur Trace districts.

Bart is a recipient of the Professional Training Award and is a member of the Order of the Arrow. He is a proud Wood Badge Beaver.

Bart is the proud father of two sons Nick, an Eagle Scout, and Ryan. He was an active volunteer with Nick's Troop and Ship. He and his wife Joann, recently celebrated their 25th anniversary.

Please join me in congratulating Bart in this new role. He can be reached via email at Bart.Zona@Scouting.org.
