“World Scouting,” or the Scout movement at the global level, is governed by the World Organization of the Scout Movement (WOSM).

WOSM is an independent, non-political, non-governmental organization that is made up of 161 National Scout Organizations (NSOs). These NSOs are located in 223 countries and territories around the world. With more than 40 million members in one million local community Scout groups, WOSM is one of the largest youth movements in the world.

The BSA became an approved and recognized NSO of WOSM in 1922.

Messengers of Peace

Launched in September 2011, Messengers of Peace is a global initiative designed to inspire millions of young men and women to work toward peace through personal, community, and relationship service projects. Using social media, Scouts from around the world can share what they’ve done and inspire fellow Scouts to undertake similar efforts in their own communities.

European Scout Voluntary Program (ESVP)

Want to work at an European Scout center? ESVP assists BSA Scouts between 18 - 30 years of age in developing their leadership skills and encouraging intercultural learning.

Pathway to Adventure Council International Scouting program encourages worldwide friendship and Scouting fellowship. We promote a global mindset and connect with foreign Scouting units by offering programs that educate Scouts about the World Organization of the Scout Movement, its programs, history, future, and our Scouts place in it.
